UNTITLED YAMASHITA #1

On a fog-draped highway in Southeast Alaska, a lonely tollbooth station marks where two lanes narrow into one. This is the only road connecting the world to the town of Pt. Mettier, where 160 full-time residents live in one concrete, high-rise building once the cold weather arrives. It is in this surreal community where severed body parts have washed up from the bay. Detective Cara Kennedy has arrived to investigate a case that no one wants, investigating a body that no one is missing, and is now stuck in a place where no one wants to be.

UK, Translation: Berkley (editor: Danielle Perez)
